DeCroce Names Montville's Annabel Pierce Legislative Aide

Parsippany, N.J. – Assemblywoman BettyLou DeCroce has named Montville philanthropist and entrepreneur Annabel Pierce as a Legislative Aide in her District Office.

Pierce has been an active public servant for the Montville community. She has served as Publicity and Marketing Chair for the Relay for Life of Montville; Character Education Committee Co-Chair for Cedar Hill Elementary School; Committee Member of the Morris County Open Space Preservation Committee; a Board Member of the Montville Township Board of Adjustment and a Board Member of the Morris County Planning Board. She has also served as the Montville Republican County Committee Chairperson and as a Board Member of the Woman's Political Caucus of New Jersey, and as President of the Montville Republican Club.

Pierce, currently CEO/CFO of Jupiter Environmental Services, Inc., will be assisting the Assemblywoman's business outreach efforts in addition to other responsibilities.

"I am thrilled to have Annabel join our team," said DeCroce. "Her business knowledge in addition to her excellent networking and problem-solving skills will only enhance our efforts to better serve the residents of the 26th Legislative District."
