

# I SERVE JERSEY

- NJRHA Industry Awareness Campaign -

NJRHA has partnered with the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey to host a meeting with restaurant owners to discuss the impact that the Covid-19 Pandemic has had on the hospitality industry. The goal is to develop a short- and long-term agenda for the industry and ask our elected official for their support in saving our industry. This agenda will include a responsible reopening, grants and loans, pro-small business legislative agenda and more. We have invited Senate President Stephen M. Sweeney and other state and local elected officials to join us.

Join Us: Tuesday, September 1st | 10:00 a.m.

Where:

Medford • Washington Twp. • Berlin

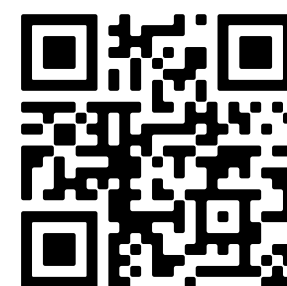

Ott's - Washington Township
340 Greentree Rd.
Sewell, NJ 08080

Who is Invited:

All hospitality business owners, employees, state and local elected officials, and members of the press. Registration will be required for admission. This will also be shown via Facebook Live.

Ways To Register:

www.NJRHA.org
or you can use QR code

All participants will be required to wear masks and adhere to social distancing. The meeting will be held outside but in the event of bad weather, we will move inside. Seating will be with proper social distancing.

Future Locations | Dates Are Being Finalized

Pines Manor, Edison | Beach Tavern, Monmouth Beach | Liberty House, Jersey City

Nanina's In the Park, Belleville | Fork & Knife Inn, Atlantic City